

Guardian's consent

Attachment to the housing application - when the applicant is under 18 years of age

Living in Sevas Kodit Oy apartments is ordinary rental housing, which means we are not able to supervise residents in the same way as is possible in dormitorytype housing. For this reason, living alone good lifemanagement skills from anyone under 18 years of age. Responsibility for control always lies with the guardian and the young person. The guardian must take this into consideration when signing the guardian's consent for the housing application.
